

WHY MCC?

At the heart of MCC's vision is MCC University, a hallmark initiative that sets it apart from similar organizations. MCC champions an intellectual revolution, encouraging Canadian Muslims to play a pivotal role in advancing humanity. Guided by Islamic principles, MCC is committed to delivering high-quality education, training, and research while spreading its message through conventions, talks, and community outreach, which foster spirituality and Allah-consciousness (Taqwa).

PRIORITIZING NEXT-GEN

The Muslim Circle of Canada (MCC) devotes half of its resources to nurturing children and youth through carefully tailored programs designed for different age groups. Activities include chapter-based initiatives such as halaqas, sports, camping, hiking, tutoring, Qur'an classes, and competitions. These competitions span a variety of categories, including Qur'an recitation, nasheeds, Islamic knowledge, debates, art, and calligraphy.

MCC further emphasizes youth engagement through its annual convention, exclusively designed to inspire and empower young participants.

"And hold firmly together to the rope of Allah and do not be divided."

Surah Al-e-Imran: 103 (3:103)

The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "Whoever separates himself from the Jama'ah even a hand span, he has thrown off the noose of Islam from his neck."

(Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith 4758)

INTRODUCTION to MCC

Muslim Circle of Canada (MCC)

www.muslimcircle.ca

The Muslim Circle of Canada (MCC) is a socio-cultural, religious, educational and not-for-profit organization. Its belief is rooted in the Islamic creeds of Allah, the only God, and Muhammad (PBUH) as the final messenger of Allah.

Established in June 2005, MCC operates chapters and subchapters in major Canadian cities, engaging men, women, youth, and children. To encourage and connect with the next generation, MCC has introduced a range of innovative and visionary programs designed to foster community engagement and development.

MCC offers a holistic approach to Islam within the multicultural Canadian Society and shows respect to all faiths, Canadian values and traditions including the values of law & justice, and faith & cooperation that are regarded highly in Canadian society.

The activities of MCC are inspired by the Qur'an, where Allah commands Muslims to share their faith and stand against injustice and oppression. Allah (SWT) says: "You are the best nation produced (as an example) for mankind. You enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong and believe in Allah. If only the People of the Scripture had believed, it would have been better for them."

Surah Al-e-Imran: 110

WHAT WE DO

The core activities can be categorized into four major areas:

1. Invitation:

To call people to submit to the will of the Creator by means of all possible ways and to motivate Muslims to perform their duties of being witnesses unto mankind through their practices.

2. Organization and Education:

To organize those who agree to work for this cause in the discipline of MCC and to provide educational and training programs to increase Islamic knowledge, to enrich character, and to grow the skills of all those who are connected with MCC.

3. Social Service and Justice:

To develop morality and to advocate the elimination of all kinds of oppressions, to support the efforts for socio-economic justice and civil liberties in the society, and to reinforce the bond of humanity by serving all those in need anywhere across Canada.

4. Culture and Research:

To do research on Canadian culture and to accommodate Canadian Muslims into its multi-cultural activities.
